HOPEWELL FEDERAL CREDIT UNION WELCOMES MOX TO ITS SALES AND SERVICE TEAM

Deanna Mox of Zanesville Signs On as Member Services Associate

HEATH / NEWARK, OH – December 5, 2011—Hopewell Federal Credit Union (HFCU) announced the recent hiring of Deanna L. Mox as Member Services Associate. Her hiring continues HFCU’s quest to offer the best support and services to help its members get ahead financially.

Mox will round out the HFCU Sales and Services team where she will assist members with new accounts, lending as well as saving and investment assistance. Mox brings more than twenty years of financial institution experience to this new roll and she shared her enthusiasm by saying, “I’m thrilled to join the dynamic team at Hopewell Federal and look forward to assisting its many members in the coming years.”

An Ohio native, Mox graduated from Tri-Valley High School (1987) and Mount Vernon Nazarene University (2003). She resides in Zanesville with her husband Wayne and daughter Paige. She has a passion for horses and actively serves on several organizations.
