FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

HOPEWELL FEDERAL CREDIT UNION CELEBRATES THE ANNIVERSARIES OF TWO LONGTIME EMPLOYEES

James G. Johnson, 15 Years of Service and Kim Bradley, 25 Years of Service

HEATH / NEWARK, OH – October 14, 2011—Hopewell Federal Credit Union (HFCU) recently celebrated the milestone anniversaries of two of its longtime employees. James G. Johnson, President and CEO, celebrated 15 years of service while Kim Bradley, part-time teller II, marked 25 years of service with Hopewell Federal Credit Union.

Johnson who joined the team in 1996 has been in the financial industry for 38 years. He grew up in Columbus, Ohio and moved to Newark in 1974. Johnson received his bachelor's degree from Park University in Parkville, Missouri and is a graduate of Credit Union National Association (CUNA) Management and Financial Management Schools. He resides in Heath with his wife Nancy and they have three grandchildren.

During Mr. Johnson's tenure with HFCU, he has held the positions of executive vice president and chief operations officers prior to being unanimously voted in as the president and chief executive officer by HFCU board of directors in 2010.

Bradley began her employment with Hopewell Federal as a full-time teller, through the years she has held a variety of positions including; senior member service representative, select group ambassador, part time teller team leader and currently a part-time teller II. She has been witness to many changes throughout her time including the addition of Saturday hours, a move to the new office on Hopewell Drive, a name change from Newark Aerospace Federal Credit Union to Hopewell Federal Credit Union, transition from a select employee group charter to a community charter, the opening of the branch office on 21st and going from a staff of about 11 people to our current staff of 28.

Bradley, A lifelong resident of Licking County, has been married for 27 years and has 2 daughters. A good-humored Bradley reflected on her reluctance of any type of change in her life, “When I find a good thing, I stick with it.”
