Hopewell Federal Credit Union Has New Lending Manager

NEWARK – August 4, 2010. Hopewell is pleased to announce that Jarod Mallory of Pataskala has been hired as their new Lending Manager. Mallory brings a wide range of experience in consumer and mortgage lending to this position. He was previously employed at Wells Fargo and Huntington National Bank prior to coming to Hopewell. He has a diverse background in lending that includes sales and underwriting. Mallory is a graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management.

Mallory will provide lending expertise for the Hopewell sales and service staff, and directly handle all relationships with Licking County auto dealers.

Mallory said, "I am thrilled to be part of such a dynamic team at Hopewell and I look forward to working with local auto dealers to help our members get ahead financially."

Hopewell Federal Credit Union is a not-for-profit financial cooperative that is owned by its members. They provide a full range of financial services to anyone who lives, works or worships in Licking County.
